

A Poem for the Persecuted

Once again today we hear of Christians being slaughtered for their faith. The TV replays their deaths over and over; we can't get used to wholesale murder, lives snuffed out before our very eyes. We must keep the persecuted ever before us in our prayers.

Please join with Only By Prayer in praying for those in so many countries around the world who suffer at the hands of evil. Let's lift up our prayers for the persecuted and their persecutors. If you feel so led, please add your prayer in the comment section below and share this post so we can keep their plight fresh in our minds and hearts.

Pray on!

Jane