

Dear Only By Prayer viewers,

Here is an update on Jesse VanOsdol, Jane's son, who was badly burned in a gasoline explosion on Wednesday night:

Current requests:

1. Strength and courage for the debriding treatments. To find the right pain meds and the right dosage.
2. That infection will not set in. Right now no sign of it.
3. He can't walk now. They think he has overdone it the last 2 days, so he has a lot of pain in his legs and swelling;so, he can't walk. His nurse said no functional reason for it. Once the swelling goes down, he should be able to walk again.
4. They have him on Monday's surgery schedule for skin graft surgery. He may not need the surgery; it just depends on the healing that takes place this weekend. It would be huge if he does not have to go through skin grafts.
5. Jesse to grow closer to Jesus during this time. The Lord led me to Psalm 66:12 last night. I am claiming that for Jesse.
6. Lastly, strength and protection and God's grace for Mark, Amber and I to be strong for him.

Thank you all.

Jane, Mark, and Amber for Jesse

Best regards,

Jane VanOsdol
