Fear Not

By Mary Kane

The one emotion that marked, drove and characterized my life before Christ was fear. I was afraid of thunderstorms, strangers and spiders; I was afraid of persecution from my peers; but most of all I was afraid of Satan. From early adolescence into my twenties I was certain that Satan was out to destroy me. Panic attacks plagued me by day and nightmares beleaguered me at night. I thought I would never be free from fear or survive Satan’s hideous attacks... and then I came to Christ. He changed everything. Through His word, godly mentors and sound teaching God, delivered me from my fears and taught me that nothing—angels nor demons nor heights nor depths could separate me from the love of Christ. I met something more powerful than fear...Love.

Please read Isaiah 43:1-3

Fear not I still love you, fear not I will never leave you. Fear not these terrible circumstances will not destroy you they are opportunities to learn that through me you are able to conquer your deepest fears.

(please make the following Scriptures personal by putting your name in the blanks)

Dear Father,

Your Word says:

But now, thus says the Lord, who created you, O _____, and He who formed you, O _____;

Fear not _____ for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name _____; You are Mine.

_____, hard times will come to you upon this earth and when you pass through the waters and it seems that you are drowning in trouble, know that I am with you. When trouble rages around you _____ I have not left you. When you walk through the fire, I am with you _____ just as I was with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the fiery furnace. You shall not be burned nor shall the flame even scorch you. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of _____, your Savior. Fear not, though you are suffering, I still love you. Fear not, though others have abandoned you, I will never leave you. Fear not, these terrible circumstances will not destroy you; they are opportunities to learn that through Me you are able to conquer your deepest fears. Fear not.

In Jesus Holy Name,

Amen
