

About Jane

A little about me: I live in Indiana and am married to Mark and mom to daughter, Amber; her husband, Andrew; and my son, Jesse. This season of life finds me as an empty nester, which I can hardly believe has arrived so soon! I know that some moms with young children are thinking they will never have a free moment again, but trust me, it comes much faster than you realize.

My Work: I am a writer. My sister Mary Kane and I speak at women's retreats and seminars under the Only By Prayer umbrella, as well as on our own. My love for God and His creation has lead me into becoming a beekeeper, aromatherapist, and herbalist.

My passion: Over the last several years, I've developed a passion for praying. I've learned much of this in the prayer ministry at my church, Grace Church in Noblesville, Indiana.

Spare time: In my spare time, I enjoy reading, gardening, making aromatherapy products, biking, Nordic walking, and paddleboarding!

What about you? I would also love to hear about you—what you love to do, what you would like to learn about prayer and what some of your favorite prayer tips are. Leave a comment or send me an email and let me know; after all, we're all on this journey together.

Thanks for stopping by!
