

All Through the Night

“What do you do when you have something big on your mind that requires some prayer? I like to find a quiet place to be by myself and pray.” To download a Bible study concerning praying through big decisions , please click on the link!