Salt not Sugar

Two of America's most popular seasonings are sugar and salt. We can't eat without 'em. When I was growing up, we always had salt and a sugar bowl on the table. I'd dump spoonful after spoonful of sugar on my Cornflakes. Sugar overload! The sugar bowl went the way of the 8-track tape, no longer a mainstay in the American household.

While the Bible is silent concerning sugar, it has much to say about salt. As a matter of fact, we are told to be salt. To do the Scripturegraphic Bible study on salt, please click on the link below:
