

Following Jesus by Mary Kane

Probably everyone has played the childhood game "Follow the Leader." It was fun to follow the leader through hill and dale, over fences and under bridges. People are still looking for someone to follow. Where you end up in life will depend on who you are following. Choose wisely! To do the study Follow the Leader, just click on the link!