

Paths by Mary Kane

Ever since I was a little girl, I have loved to follow twisty, turny paths through the woods. Who knew what great adventure could be just beyond the next turn? The Bible compares our lives to paths. In order to follow Jesus, we must follow the path He made for us two thousand years ago. To do the study "Paths," please click on the link!

Image: Simon Howden / FreeDigitalPhotos.net