

In the Wilderness by Mary Kane

Do you like to wander in the wilderness? At times God calls us to meet with Him in the wilderness, at other times our enemies may cause us to seek shelter there. Whatever the reason we may end up in the wilderness, God wants us to know that He is there, leading us every step of the way, if we will only follow Him! To do the study In the Wilderness, just click on the link!