

Lent Day 34, Clean Hands

Welcome to Day 34 of our Lenten Devotional. We've made a lot of progress so far! I trust that you are ready to tackle this week's study. As we are about two weeks away from Easter, we are going to zero in this week on spiritual spring cleaning. Let's finish off the hard work this week of getting clean hands and a pure heart so that next week we are ready to follow Jesus on the path to the cross.

Thanks for joining us! Just click below to ready today's devotional.
