

Walking in Truth Podcast # 1: Supremacy of Christ

Mary Kane and Jane VanOsdol are excited for this new podcast series called Walking in Truth, A Study in the book of Colossians. Let's learn and laugh together as we explore what it means to grow in our faith. In this first session, Preparing for the Journey, we'll explore Colossians 1:1-8. We'll start with a brief background and then jump right into the verses.

Here is a free viewer guide for you to download and print off so that you can follow along with us as we study together.
