

It's Never for Nothing by Mary Kane

Have you ever worked long and hard over a document only to have your computer crash and send your work to cyber space? Thankfully, God never crashes. Our work in Him will never be in vain. I want to know that what I'm doing through Him has a purpose, that it will make a difference and that I am affecting my world for Christ. I need a reason to get up every day. At this point in my life, there is nothing more satisfying than the feeling God has used me to accomplish a work for His kingdom in the life of another person.
